Dear Sir/Madam,

We wish to inform you that, the Company has received BIS Certification Marks License No 8300170712 as per IS 11652:2017 from Bureau of Indian Standards (The National Standards Body of India) to use Standard Mark in respect of Textiles high density polyethylene (HDPE)/ Polypropylene (PP) woven sacks for packaging of 50 kg cement till September 09, 2025.

The key benefits derived from this certificate is produced below:

- A certified product serves as evidence that a product has been tested and certified as per prescribed standards.
- A certified product provides a sense of security and safety to the consumers, thus ensuring easy acceptance.
- A certified product acts as a shield against penalties and fines which could be imposed for not certifying a product.
- It provides a competitive advantage over competitors.
- Easy market acceptance as a product is tested and certified.
- Seamless to file government tenders.

This is for your information and records.

Your Faithfully,

For SPP Polymer Limited
